Family Communion

Malcolm Ingham writes:

This morning marks the last Sunday Service I will be leading at All Saints, Elton. Over the summer we will be joining together for Partnership Services meeting at either St. Andrew's or St. Michaels (see the back page for details) and when September arrives St. John the Baptist and St. Remigius will be joining with Wansford and Castor whilst All Saints will begin a new era. At All Saints this morning it will be a privilege to share communion together and also to dedicate the Church Bibles, some of which have been paid for by church members and others donated by the Gideons. What better way to depart than by remembering the death and resurrection of Christ and entrusting God's Living Word to be proclaimed in these villages.
